NEW-YORK CITY.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS.

At the Quartermaster's Department yesterday nothing special took place. Gen. Arthur and hie assistants were busy, as usual, in purchasing and dispensing clothing and provisions to the new recruits. Somebody must furnish these, and this fact probably accounts for the presence in the neighborhood of so many gentlemen not particularly distinguished for their military ex-

Gov. Morgan, Commander-in-Chief, has limited the quota of the counties of New-York, Kings, and West-chester to 10,000 men, which number has already been enrolled. Such being the case, persons enrolling hereafter must trust to the chances of an increase of the number of the volunteers from this State, which is likely to take place. This will prove a disappointment to many thousands.

The election of the following officers has taken

RE-ENFORCEMENTS FOR THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.

One hundred and seventy members and ex-members of the National Guard, who were unable to leave with the Seventh, mustered at the Armory at 9 o'clock yesterday to receive arms and ammunition, preparatory to their departure to join their brothers-in-arms at Annapolis. After receiving their ammunition, they protheir departure to join their broaters in arms at Arter receiving their amountation, they proceeded to the exhibition drill-room, where a large number of their friends were assembled to hid the brave fellows good bye. Capt. Vi le having put the men through a few evolutions, addressed them in the following words: "I call on you, on your bonor as gentlemen, if there is one among you who believes himself physically or otherwise incapable of performing his duty, or enduring the fatigues of a campaign, let him then to the front."

step to the front."

After a moment's panse, during which no one moved, the crowd of spectators burst into vociferous cheers. Then followed the warm farewells of friends, the tearners of the state of ful adiens of mothers, sisters, sweethearts, and many checks that will not blanch before the enemy, were wet with tears. The men filed by two and two, marched down Broadway, through Canal street to the old Collin's dock, where the propeller Daylight lay waiting to receive them.

Capt. Vicle of the Engineers, a graduate of West Point, commands the reduforcements, aided by Adjutant Arrowsmith. The men are fully equipped, and carry thirty rounds of ball cartridges. When the men were embarked, Capt. Viele immediately established military regulations on board, placed sentinels at the different quarters, and took precautious measures against surprise or attack. Four guns were placed on board the Daylight, with plentiful stores of grape and cannister. The propeller hauled into the stream at 2 o'clock, and steamed slowly down the Bay, in order to be overtaken by the Parkersburg with the 11th New-York and 25th Albuny Regiments on board. In addition to the bagging and equipments of the men on board, the Daylight has a full cargo of provisions, valued at $15,000, for the Seventh, chartered the propeller at his own risk, and in one day placed on board 200 bbls, family beef, 300 bbls, pilot bread, 300 bbls, polatoes, 20 therees bams, 200 cases preserved mests, 200 boxes cheers, 200 boxes herrings, 30 boxes candics, 1,000 lb codfish, 10 boxes lemons, 30 bbls, beans, 4 bbls, whisky, &c.

The men were in excel-lent spirits, and before the propeller reached Staten Island they were investigating the contents of private commissariate, supplied by thoughtful friends, and putting fresh charges in their revolvers.

DEPARTURE OF THE 25TH, OF ALBANY.

The 25 Regiment, Col. Bryan, which arrived in this city on Monday night, from Albany, embarked last evening, at 6 o'clock from Pier No. 15 North River, on board the steamship Parkersburg. This regiment is an exceedingly fine one, comprising over 400 men from the City of Albany and its vicinity alone. There are many firemen among the volunteers in its ranks, and all appear anxions to engage in the struggle which lies before them. The regiment has been brought to its present efficiency through the exertions of Col. Bryan, whose military career extends over many years. On leaving the quarters which they have occupied during Bector street and Broadway—an admiring crowd gathered about and escorted them to the boat, where an ered about and escorted them to the boat, where an enthusiastic cheer was given them at parting. The Parkersburg then hauled out into the stream, where she came to an anchor, to await the arrival of another transport ship and the armed convoy which is expected to sail with them this morning. The 25th Regiment is accompanied by the Albany Republican Artillery, numbering 130 men, commanded by Capt. Freddenall. The following are the officers of the regiment:

THE PARK BARRACKS.

The construction of the great barracks in the Park is being driven forward with all possible speed, and no doubt the whole structure will be completed by this evening. On the Brondway side there is one continuous range of building over 400 feet long by about 30 in width. The flooring is of plank laid loosely on sleepers, the roof is double, or rather, there are two sepa-rate double-pitch roofs, meeting in the center of the building. Large widows in the sides at short distances apart give ample light and ventilation. Sleeping-bunks will be made in tiers of three along the sides, and the mess tables will stretch the whole distance down the center. A kitchen, close at hand in a sepadown the center. A kitchen, close at hand in a separate building, contains three immense Shepard's cooking-ranges with large camp expers, and one is constructed with jackets so as to keep water constantly boiling. Food for 1,000 men can be easily cooked in these three ranges at one time. On the Park-place side another building 100 feet long is being erected.

THE EQUIPMENT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The Committee of Five, consisting of Messrs. Boole, Froment, Chipp, Farley and Smith, appointed to ascertain and report to the Board at the next meeting the cost of equipping each regiment of volunteers mustered cost of equipping each regiment of volunteers mustered into service in this city, mes on Wednesday afternoon at No. 8 City Hail, 'when Mr. Boole was chosen Chairman, and S. Myers Secretary.

The Hon. Daniel E. Sickles appeared before the Committee, and gave the cost of the uniforms of several regiments; that of the uniform of the Seventh Regiment was $21; that of the Seventy-first and Thirteenth was $27 50; of the Ninth, $27; of the New-York State Militia, $24. To complete this uniform a frock-cost mast be added, which would bring it up to a total of $35 per man.

Capt. Massrield Lovell gave a list of the requisite equipments to turn out a man in complete fighting order. The contract price of a musket was $14; but he did not think they could be had at all except upon requirition upon Government. No muskets were manufactured except by Government.

Mr. Sickles said that he had been informed, though he would not speak of the matter as from positive knowledge, that very large quantities had been ab-stracted from various State Arenals, and that every-thing of the kind had been bought up and sent South. Arms issued to this State, to New-England, to Pennsylvania, and other States—muskets worth at least $14 each—had been sold for a mere song, and had gone into he bands of the rebels. ized the sale of them. He had been told that the Areenals had been nearly stripped of modern-inde weapons, and the State was not therefore in a condition to equip its regiments.

Capt. Levell. estimated that the cost of clothing, arming, and equipping a regiment of 1,000 men, would not be less than $75,000, nor more than $100,000.

Mr. Sickles suggested that each man should be provided with a revolver.

Capt. Lovell. said—No; don't make a man a walk-Capt. Lovell said—No; don't make a man a walking arsenal. The mounted troops might have pistols. But it was enough for a man to carry a musket and 40 rounds of ammunition, and four days provisions, without the pistol, which weighs 11 pounds in the morning and 25 pounds at night. Beside, any weight around the loins after two or three hours' marching begins to tell very oppressively. The great difficulty was to make men take good care of one weapon. A musket was enough for a man. The lighter a soldier goes the better, for if he is loaded down too heavily he will throw away his extens. The provisions he carries in his haversack are four pounds of bread and three of meat.

The Committee then adjourned to meet at 3 p. m. to-

IMPORTANT TO SEA CAPTAINS.

Capt. Morris Osbon of the schooner Leroy, who are rived at this port yesterday, with 8,000 bushels of corn rived at this port yesterday, with 8,000 bushels of corn from Norfolk, reports having experienced great difficulty in procuring a permit for his departure on Saturday hast. The proper authorities positively refused to grant it, the object being to retain both vessel and cargo for the use of the rebels. Capt. Osbon then called on his agent, where, having been engaged in shipping to and from Virginia for thirty years, he hoped to obtain assistance. The agent also refused to anything, for the reason that it would all be of "no use." Capt. Osbon then determined that, in any event, they should not have his vessel. After such treatment, he would sink her first, corn and all.

Capt. Osbon then asked the owner of a tug-boat heretofore employed by him, to tow him out of the harbor, and received the reply that he "would tow him out and sink him in the bargain." A crippled sailor here came along and petitioned that Capt. Osbon would take him along, as the poople of Norfolk wouldn't have him there, which was granted, and the sailor is now at the Seaman's Retreat on Staten Island. Finally, Capt. Osbon pil ted his own passed out of the harbor at 5 p. m. and when his own vessel out of the harbor at 5 p. m., and when seven miles off, at anchor, late at night, he saw the Navy-Yard on fire. He warned other vessels to stay out of Norfelk, and persuaded them to return to New-York. Capi. Osbon says there wasn't a sine mae in Norfelk. Only two or three large vessels remained there when he left.

THE SECESSIONISTS DOWN ON NEW-YORK. Expelled Union men from Richmond report that the Secessionists are fearfully "down" on New-York. It had been confidently expected that thousands of volunteers and millions of money would be cast by New-York in favor of revolution and anarchy. They say they built up New-York themselves, and consider it a very ungrateful thing for the metropolis now to turn round against them. The intend to make fearful retalliation for our ingratitude.

NEW-YORK YACHT CLUB.

The New-York Yacht Club, which was announced to meet yesterday afternoon, "for the purpose of considering what action should be taken by the owners of yachte and members of the Club in the present crisis," failed to come to any conclusion. In consequence of the insufficiency of the notice of meeting. but few members were present, and an adjournment to an early day was made, notice of which will be given. It is expected that every member of the Club will do all in his power to aid the Government, not only personally, but with his vessel.

RECRUITS FOR THE SOUTHERN NAVY. Dr. Sabo was committed by United States Comm sioner Betts on a charge of treason or misprision of treason, he baying been conspiring with intent to entreason, he having been conspiring with intent to en-list earlors for the Navy of the South. The informa-tion against him was given by a printer, who, by order of the accused, had printed a form of enlistment similar to those used in the United States service. It is claimed that the prisser intended to delude his recruits into the belief that they were to be engaged for service in the United States Navy at the South.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS IN BROOKLYN.

The main portion of the 13th Regiment having departed for the seat of war, and the departure of the Sth Regiment having been delayed on account of mis-management somewhere, the interest of the public is now mainly concentrated upon the 14th Regiment, which is understood to 'ave received orders to march on Saturday. This regiment is under command of Col. Alfred M. Wood. The companies are nearly all full, and there being plenty of time to provide themselves with executions received for a command of the con-

The 14th numbers eight full companies, with an engineer corps, and it will turn out at least $50, if not 1,000 men. The men are drilled daily, and yesterday the whole regiment was tarded in Monroe place, and exercised in the school of the soldier. The men are making rapid progress in their duties, and when uniformed will present as fine an appearance as any of the regiments (except the 7th) which have yet started for Washington. A portion of the regiment will be uniformed in the Chasseur style—loose blue jackets, red undershirts, loose a dagreeable to wear, and especially adapted warm latitude. #### COLONEL MAY.

It having been very recently reported that this gentleman is a Secessionist, it is due to him to say that the reverse is the fact. A Brevet-Colonel in the army, he saw his juniors promoted over his head, Hardee being the last instance; so, in September last he went to Washington and tendered his resignation to Secretary Floyd. The latter refused it, and gave him a year's leave of absence. Recently, Col. May went to Washington and tendered his services to General Scott, provided he could serve in the rank to which he was entitled. The General was sorry that he could not so arrange it, and Col. May has since tendered his services to the Governor of this State, for any position which he may choose to assign to him.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN THE CITY.

On Saturday and Sunday the greatest excitement prevailed in the city. Troops were hurrying to and fro, and every one anxious to know what was to be done, but anable to obtain the desired information. The rumor was that the Cumberland was about to sail from the Navy-Yard, and preparations were made to prevent her. prevent her.

At 12 o'clo k an officer came from the yard bearing a flag of truce, and was conducted to Gen. Taliaferro's headquarters at the Atlantic Hotel, where a consultation was held which resulted in a promise from the Commandant of the yard, Com. Macauley, that none of the vessels should be removed, nor a shot fired except in self defense. This quieted the excitement, but it was resewed at a later hour, when it was ascertained that the Germantown and Merrimae had been scuttled, and that the heavy shears on the wharf at which the G. was Iying had been cut away, and allowed to fall midships across her decks, carrying away the maintopmasts and yards.

It was also perceived that the men were busily engaged in dectroying and throwing overboard side and

It was also perceived that the men were bosily engaged in destroying and throwing overboard side and small arms, &c., and other property, and boats were almost constantly passing between the Pennsylvania, Cumberland, and other vessels. The assurance of the Commodore, given by his officer at the trace interview, however, tended to allay the apprehension of an immediate collision. But the continued stirring movements at the yard soon rendered it certain that it was the intention of Macauley to destroy all the buildings and other property there—and it was, therefore, with not much surprise that, about midnight, after two or three slight explosions, the light of a serious configgration was observed at the yard.

This continued to increase, and before daylight the demon work of destruction was extended to the immense ship-houses known as A and B (the former containing the entire frame-work of the New-York, 74, which had been on the stocks unfinished for some thirty-eight years), and also to the long ranges of two-story offices and stores on each side of the main gate of the yard. The roar of the confingration was loud enough to be heard at the distance of three or four unles; and to this were added occasional discharges from the heavy guns of the Pennsylvania, ship-of-the line, as they became successively heated. THE PROPERTY DESTROYED.

As far as we could judge from a cursory observation, the property destroyed embraced, beside the shiphouses and contents, the range of buildings on the north line of the yard (except the Commodore's and Commander's residences, which were unbart), the old Commander's residences, which were unpurif, the our marine barracks and one or two workshops, the immense lifting shears, the ships Pennsylvania, Merrinaec, Ratinan, Columbia, and brig Dolphin—nuran to the water a edge; the sloop Germantown, broken and sunk; the Plymouth, scattled and sunk even with her deck; and a vast amount of small arms, chronometers, and medicinery in the ordinates and valuable engines and machinery in the and other shops, broken up and rendered utterly useless.

THE DRY DOCK.

Appearances indicated that it was intended to cripple this admirable and useful work by blowing up the gates; but from some cause this was not done, and the dock was found to be shogether unburt.

We cannot oring ourselves to believe that any officer of a navy, distinguished hitherto by a high sense of honor and chivalrous courage, could willingly con-descend to such an inglorious mode of warfare as this. Danger to Our Transports and Commerce.

Information has been received by Gen. Wool that there are two privateer steamers, that were fitted out at Norfolk before Virginia seceded, now off Cape Henry. They are of light draft, and formerly plied on James River. One of them carries a single rifled gun, swivel-mounted. The other has four large guns. It is thought that the expedition which left New-York on Sunday (the Baltic, the R. R. Cuyler, and the Columbia), convoyed by the Harriet Lane, may fall in with these pirates. The Harriet Lane has nine heavy Dahlgren guns.
